

Series 7400 Operable Windows

The Series 7400 is a 2 1/4" operable window that was successfully tested to ANSI/AAMA/NWDA-1011.5 2-97 requirements. The 7400 window is constructed using extruded tubular members mitered and crimped with corner keys. These windows are offered in projected, fixed and casement configurations.

- 2 1/4" Depth
- AW-75 rated
- Projected, Fixed or Casement
- Multitude of hardware options
- Reinforced corner construction
- Flush sash with frame design
- 90° Corners, compensation channels, starter sills and sill flashing
- Available in an array of architectural coatings and anodized finishes

